MAY ABANDON GOOD ROADS ORGANIZATION

State Convention Held Here on Wednesday Was Slimly Attended.

Scarcely more than twenty persons were in attendance at the convention of the Utah State Good Roads association yesterday. Three sessions were held, however, and nearly all the papers scheduled were rend. The small attendance was accounted for by the fact that the State fair formed a counter-attraction that could not be overcome.

Welcomed by Governor.

President James H. Anderson delivered a brief address at the morning session and was followed by Gov. Cutler in a speech of welcome. The principal paper was read by Prof. J. W. Jensen of the Brigham Young college at Logan on "The Necessity for Scientific Engineering in the Laying Out and Building of Roads." Gov. Cutler, in his talk, spoke encouragingly of the work of improving the road system of the State.

Other Papers Read.

Other papers read were those by Com-nissioner W. W. Wilson of Sait Lake county. William Spry of Tooele, I. C. Thorenson of Cache county. State En-sineer Caleb Tanner, County Surveyor J. B. Swenson of Sait Lake county, County Commissioner Joseph Standford of Weber county and Clint B. Leigh.

May Abandon Organization.

The silm attendance at the convention will probably cause the abandonment of the effort to carry on a State organization, other than that which may be done through committee work and such conferences of the County Commissioners as may be called.

Mr. Bennett left $10,000 to be distributed among the pupils of twenty-five colleges as prizes for the best essays regarding the principles of free government. Two additional funds, each of $10,000, were left to aid needy boys and girls in securing education. The list of colleges named has been announced in previous dispatches.

DENTIST DEMANDS $50,000 FROM RICH CHICAGOAN

Accused Man, Backed Spouse, Alleges Suit Is Spitework.

CHICAGO, Oct 4-Charging allenia ion of his wife's affections and asking damages in the sum of $50,000, Dr John A. Whipple, a dentist, has brought suit against Walter S. Baldwin, a wealthy West Side real estate dealer. Whippic is now a defendant in a suit for separate maintenance brought by his wife in

July
Only the formal notice of suit was filed, but it is understood that the complaint charges Baldwin with being responsible for the separation of the Whipples and with befriending Mrs. Whipple and taking her side in her conflicts with her husband. husband.

Baldwin lives at 1205 Franklin boule-vard and until Wednesday night Mrs Whipple lived at 229 North Albany ave-nue, which is only a block distant from the Baldwin home.

Were Frequent Visitors.

It is said that Baldwin and his wife have been frequent visitors at the North Albany avenue house, where Mrs. Whipple lived with her mother.

Tuesday Whipple and his son Walter, it is charged, went to the Aibany avenue house in an automobile during his wife's absence, broke down the front door with an ax, compelled his wife's mother to leave, and took possession. His wife, who has been employed in the city as a seamstress, it is said, since she and her husband separated, came hore shortly after 6 o'clock. She saw the wreck of the front door, observed her linsband walking around in the house, and fearing to enter, ran to Baldwin's home, asking for help.

Baldwin returned with her and entered the house. Whipple, it is said, denomiced him and ordered him to leave the place, upbraiding his wife for being with him. Mrs. Whipple feared to remain in the house and went to the home of friends at 221 North Albany avenue, where her mother already had taken refuge. Whipple remained in the house all night, and when he left yesterday morning he barricaded the doors and windows, so that it would be impossible for his wife to enter.

Says Suit Is Spitework.

When Ealdwin was seen last evening he referred to the suit brought against bim as spitework.

There is no foundation whatever for the charges that Whipple makes. There has never been anything wrong between Mrs. Whipple and myself, and the Whipples have never quarreled because of me. I never took part in any dispute between them excepting that of Tuesday night, when Whipple broke into his wife's home.

Mrs. Buldwin expressed every cannidence in her husband and declared that whatever action he had taken in befriending Mrs. Whipple was at her insistence.

"Mrs. Whipple and I are good friends "Mrs. Whippie and I are good to she said, 'and have been for some time I have been sorry for her because of the trouble she has gone through. She habeen deserted by her husband and I compelled to make a living for hersel and her aged mother.

Urged Husband to Aid Her.

"My sympathles always have been her, and I urged my husband to do in his power to ald her. He has done and in doing so has seen her a num of times, but their relations have ne been more than those of friends, and am fully satisfied that there is no ground for Dr. Whipple's claims. He is angry at my husband because he befriended his wife. I will stand by my

Baldwin declared that he had known

Baldwin declared that he had known Mrs. Whipple for some time, and that some years ago he seld her the property at 29 North Albany avenue. The deed was made out in the name of Mrs. Whipple upon the expressed wish of her husband, he says.

"When Mr. and Mrs. Whipple separated," he said, "Whipple wanted me to break the contract I had with his wife and turn the property over to him. I refused, and, with the assistance of my wife, aided Mrs. Whipple to the best of my ability in carrying out the terms of her contract, so that she might be able to complete paying for the property.

When Mrs. Whipple learned hast eyening that her husband had brought a suit against her benefactor and friend, she went immediately to his home in Franklin boulevard, where they talked over the matter with Mrs. Bahlwin.

When Mrs. Whipple brought soit against her husband last July, asking for separate maintenance, she charged that he mistreated her, accusing him of burning up her clothing and throwing china and brie-a-brae at her.

Mrs. Whipple is 25 years old and attractive. Fifteen years ago she met Dr. Whipple, who was an instructor in a dental college at that time. He was a widower with two sons. Louis and Walter. These sons Mrs. Whipple charges with being largely responsible for the differences with her husband.

Whipple and his sons have dental offices at 129 West Madison strest. Baldwin is one of the wealthiest real estate owners on the West Side. He owns property valued at more than $50,000 in Franklin boulevard, Albany and Kedzts avenue, and has offices at the northwest corner of Franklir boulevard and Redzie avenue.
